III. BOARD OFFICE

3.01 Board Office Statement of Mission

As part of the organizational audits conducted by the Board in 1989 with the assistance of the Peat Marwick firm, the Board Office developed a mission statement as follows:

Clearly, A. The Board Office provides administrative and professional support to the Board of Regents. The Board Office has diverse responsibilities, which include review, analysis, and policy recommendations on all matters coming before the Board. The Board Office works closely with the Regent institutions to develop and distribute information to the Board, coordinates the distribution of information to the Board of Regents. Representative responsibilities of the Board Office include the following:

- Monitors and interprets Board policy for the Regent institutions;
- Maintains oversight on matters related to academic affairs, business and finance, diversity, personnel and employment relations;
- Administers the Regent Merit System;
- Coordinates collective bargaining;
- Conducts studies, either alone or in association with the institutions and/or other agencies, and reports findings and recommendations;
- Conducts special investigations as directed by the Board;
- Monitors institutional planning and analyses to support the Board’s strategic planning efforts;
- Coordinates and advises the Board regarding system-wide projects and initiatives;
- Assists the Board in presidential institutional head searches;
- Monitors and coordinates legislative matters and interactions with other state agencies;
- Works with other matters as determined by the Board of Regents

B. The Executive Director and the Board Office serve as an important extension of the Board Regents. The Executive Director and the President of the Board serve as the “Officers of the Board of Regents”.

The Board considers a request from the Board Office to the institutions to be a request from this Board and expects that such requests will be responded to accurately and in a timely manner. In addition, the Board expects to be kept informed of critical and important happenings at the institutions through timely reporting to the President of the Board and the Executive Director.
These roles the Board has defined for itself and its Executive Director are the keystones for facilitating the Board’s strategic plan and for achieving the Board’s goal of being a national leader in the governance of public higher education.

The Board of Regents office is the staff arm of the Board of Regents. The Board Office provides administrative support to the Board by reviewing, analyzing, and making policy recommendations on all matters coming before the Board. It monitors and interprets Board policy for the Regent institutions. It prepares studies and analyses and maintains oversight on academic affairs, business and finance, affirmative action, and personnel and employment relations. It administers the Regent Merit System and coordinates collective bargaining. It conducts studies, either alone or in association with the institutions and/or other agencies, and reports findings and recommendations. It conducts special investigations as directed by the Board. It monitors institutional planning, conducts environmental scanning and analyses to support the Board of Regents overall strategic planning efforts, and prepares strategic planning recommendations. It assists the Board of Regents in presidential searches.

The staff functions in a complex environment in which it performs many roles in a variety of ways, depending on the specific set of circumstances. It represents the interests of the Board and institutions on a continuing basis to the Governor, Legislature, government agencies, other organizations, and the general public. In executing its duties, the office is responsible for protecting the academic integrity and autonomy of the institutions while maintaining institutional accountability.
