The Feasibility and Planning Study Committee examining effective and efficient services for students who are deaf, blind, visually impaired, hard of hearing and deaf blind will be hosting a public hearing on Monday, October 22nd beginning at 5:00 PM. Public hearing participants may participate from a number of Iowa Communication Network (ICN) locations. Participants who wish to present at the public hearing may do so by signing up the afternoon of the hearing. Presentations will be limited to three minutes per individual. The information from the public hearings will be utilized by the committee as they formulate recommendations for consideration by the Board of Regents.
