

SAVE THE DATE!

Event: Campus Safety and Security Summit

Date/Time: Wednesday, October 28, 2015 – 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Location: DMACC Ankeny Campus – FFA Building

Sponsors: Board of Regents, State of Iowa
Iowa Association of Community Colleges
Iowa Association of Independent Colleges and Universities
Iowa Coordinating Council for Post High School Education

Cost: $20 per person

The Summit will allow teams of higher education professionals to share best practices and information on campus safety and security, and include information related to legal requirements as well as campus policies and procedures.

Bonnie Campbell will be the keynote speaker. Ms. Campbell served as Iowa's Attorney General from 1991 to 1995 and is known for having written an anti-stalking law that became a national blueprint. In 1995, President Clinton appointed Ms. Campbell to head the U.S. Department of Justice's newly created Office on Violence Against Women.

The day will include one large group session and three additional sessions where participants will have an opportunity to choose areas of interest.
