PRESIDENTIAL SEARCH — IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY

Action Requested: Participate in the interviews of search firms to provide consulting services for the Iowa State University Presidential Search.

Executive Summary: The Board issued a Request for Proposal for “Consulting Services for a Search to Identify Candidates for the Next President of Iowa State University” on April 5, 2011. Proposals in response to the RFP were to be received by April 19. The submitted proposals were evaluated, and the following four firms have been identified for interview.

Isaacson, Miller
Greenwood/Asher & Associates, Inc.
R. William Funk and Associates
Parker Executive Search

In the course of the interviews, the Board will discuss with representatives of the firms their search processes, past successful searches and what they consider as best practices to conduct successful searches. It is anticipated each interview will last approximately 30 minutes.
