PRESENTATION AT THE UNIVERSITY OF IOWA: INVESTING IN STUDENT SUCCESS @ IOWA

Action Requested: Receive the presentation.

Executive Summary: Excelling@Iowa identifies students who may be struggling or at-risk and connects them to resources to improve their experience at Iowa and increase the likelihood of retention and achieving graduation. The Provost Investment Fund funded expansion of this initiative to include all undergraduate students across all colleges in spring 2019. The Provost Investment Fund supports interdisciplinary, innovative initiatives that advance the UI strategic plan in the areas of student success, education, research, or outreach and have the potential to be self-sustaining within three years.

Presenters: Sue Curry, Interim Executive Vice President and Provost and Danielle Martinez, Associate Director, Academic Support and Retention; and Project Director, Excelling@Iowa
