Proposed 2021-22 Tuition and Fees

Board Chief Business Officer Brad Berg presented a first reading of 2021-22 Proposed Tuition and Fees. Proposed tuition rates included a base undergraduate resident increase of $283 at SUI, $282 at ISU and $115 at UNI. Proposals also included varying differential tuition rates for certain higher-cost programs.

Julia Campbell, president of the ISU student government; Regan Smock, president of the SUI undergraduate student government, Alisanne Struck, UNI student government vice president; and Walt Wang, UI GPSG vice president, spoke on the proposed tuition rates.

President Richards noted that the Regents make every effort to keep tuition rates low without sacrificing quality of education. Richards thanked the students for their comments and commended their leadership.

Proposed 2021-22 Common and University/Program-Specific Fees

Board Associate Chief Business Officer Andrea Anania presented a first reading of 2021-22 Proposed Common and University/Program-Specific Fees.

Adjourn

President Richards adjourned the meeting at 1:17 p.m.
