The Iowa Board of Regents will hold a retreat October 1-2 in the Executive Boardroom of the University Capitol Centre on the campus of the University of Iowa in Iowa City.

The purpose of the retreat is for the Board to receive informational presentations on the role of Board members, donor relations, a review of various applicable state and federal laws, and an overview of the Board of Regents office. The retreat will not include any formal actions or decisions by the Board.

The retreat agenda is posted on the Board of Regents website at www.iowaregents.edu.

The Board of Regents is a group of nine citizen volunteers who govern the state's three public universities through policymaking, coordination and oversight.
