UNIVERSITY OF NORTHERN IOWA
FALL 2004

Institutional Observation

1. While the same reasons given by resident students not on probation dominate the group on probation, we see a marked increase in more person centered reasons for not returning. Significant percentages were recorded in the reasons "academically unprepared" (23.1%), "poor academic performance" (23.1%), and "inadequate study habits" (38.5%). These students also listed financial reasons such as "increases in tuition and fees" (30.8%) and "transferred to a lower cost institution" (23.1%), and personal reasons such as "unmotivated or tired of school" (30.8%) and "too much social life (30.8%) as primary reasons they did not return.
