Subject: Bomb Threats at SUI

Good Morning,

Just as an FYI, several bomb threats were received last night and this morning regarding a bomb being placed in the Hardin Library on the campus of the University of Iowa. The building was evacuated, locked down, and a bomb squad was called in early this morning. After a search using modern technology and bomb sniffing dogs, the all clear was given moments ago and the building is back in service.

A specific threat was also identified regarding Jesup Hall and that building was also evacuated about mid-morning, checked out, also reopened moments ago as well.

I wanted you to be aware of these developments before you read or heard about them from the media.

Gary
